Tis Only We Who Grieve

Tis only we who grieve They do not leave They are not gone They look upon us still They walk among the valleys now They stride upon the hill Their smile is in the summer sky Their grace is in the breeze Their memories whisper in the grass Their calm is in the trees Their light is in the winter snow Their tears are in the rain Their merriment runs in the brook Their laughter in the lane Their gentleness is in the flowers They sigh in autumn leaves They do not leave They are not gone Tis only we who grieve If only we could see the splendour of the land To which our loved ones are called from you and me We'd understand If only we could hear the welcome they receive From old familiar voices all so dear We would not grieve If only we could know the reason why they went We'd smile and wipe away the tears that flow And wait content.
