To Sleep

O soft embalmer of the still midnight, Shutting, with careful Fingers and benign, Our gloom-pleas'd eyes, Embower'd from the light, Enshaded in forgetfulness divine: O soothest Sleep! if so it please thee, close In midst of this thine hymn my willing eyes, Or wait the ―Amen,â€- ere thy poppy throws Around my bed its lulling charities. Then save me, or the passed day will shine Upon my pillow, breeding many woes,-Save me from curious Conscience, That still lords Its strength for darkness, Burrowing like a mole; Turn the key deftly In the oiled wards, And seal the hushed Casket of my Soul.
